Let's Start!

Writing Spot: Take a stroll along the canals in Venice. How romantic!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- Where would you like to get married?
- What makes a city romantic?

Can Do Statements

- I can write a short letter.
- I can talk about key life events.
- I can report about things, actions, events, or people.

Let's Explore!

Listen to Sally read her letter to Peter about Venice. Why does it hold a special place in her heart?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Dear Peter,

I hope you are enjoying your internship. Let me tell you about my 24 hours in Venice. There really is nowhere else on Earth like it. There are 117 small islands and 150 stunning canals that flow through the city center. You grab your camera and wander around the old city streets.

Venice is renowned for the beauty of its setting, its architecture, and its artworks. There are numerous attractions in Venice, such as St Mark's Basilica and the Grand Canal. This place has a special place in my heart. My parents married in a small church near the Piazza San Marco.

My father is such a romantic! Maybe one day, I can get married or have someone propose to me in the same place ... And the pigeons! They're everywhere!

Your friend,

Sally

Let's Practice!

Talking About a Life Event

Important events that happen in your life are called life events. There are names for these events. Here are a few:

- first day of school/work
- birthday
- graduation
- getting a job
- promotion
- wedding
- having a baby
- anniversary (10th/25th)
- retiring

You talk about life events when you are speaking or writing about yourself or family members.

Examples:

- I was born in Cambridge Mass. in 1984.
- I attended elementary school in Boston.
- My sister's birthday is in March.
- I graduated from high school.
- My parents got married in Venice 25 years ago.
