

Let's Practice!

Where do sentences belong? What do you include in a letter to a friend about a town or city?

Instructions: Organize the sentences in the correct order.

- _____ And the pigeons! They' re everywhere!
- _____ Let me tell you about my 24 hours in Venice. There really is nowhere else on Earth like it.
- _____ This place has a special place in my heart. My parents married in a small church near the Piazza San Marco.
- _____ Dear Peter,
- _____ Your friend, Sally
- _____ My father is such a romantic! Maybe one day, I can get married or have someone propose to me in the same place.
- _____ There are 117 small islands and 150 stunning canals that flow through the city center.
- _____ I hope you are enjoying your internship.

Let's Practice!

Tell me about this beautiful Venice.

Instructions: Read the sentences aloud.

1. This city has a special place in my heart.
2. You grab your camera and wander around the old city streets.
3. My parents married in a small church near the Piazza San Marco.
4. Maybe one day, I can get married or have someone propose to me in the same place.
5. Venice is renowned for the beauty of its setting, its architecture, and its artworks.