Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- How good are you at packing?
- Do you always take too much?
- Are you a light packer?

Can Do Statements

- I can ask and talk about what people do and what people are doing.
- I can give extended warnings, recommendations, or advice.
- I can make suggestions.

Let's Explore!

Sally is heading to New York!

* To "head" to a place is to go in that direction.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally's Suitcase

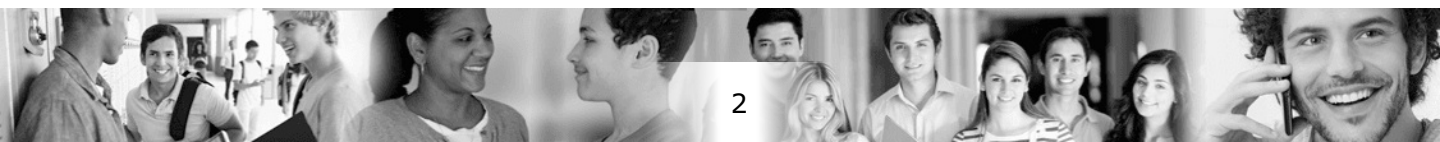

Let's talk about Holland! If you want to see tulips, this is the place to come. I love it here in Amsterdam! If you want to look your best, book a complete spa package! Then, spend the evening on the deck of a canal boat.

I am packing my suitcase tonight. I am heading to the US tomorrow. I am going to come back here someday. I want to live on a houseboat! We should meet here on the water!

What music do you enjoy? If you like opera, Salzburg has great performances. The soloists in their productions are amazing! You could come next year!

Where am I going next? I'm considering China, Russia and Turkey! When can you meet me there?

- Sally

Learning Points

The Present Continuous Tense vs. The Simple Present Tense

You use the Simple Present tense to talk about:

- things in general
- things that happen regularly
- things that do not change

You use the Present Continuous tense to talk about:

- something that is happening now
- something that is happening around now

Simple Present	Present Continuous
I love it here in Amsterdam!	Where am I going next?
Spend the evening on the deck of a canal boat.	I'm considering China, Russia and Turkey!
What music do you enjoy?	I am packing my suitcase tonight.

Examples:

- We're traveling through the canals in Amsterdam.
- I want to visit some friends.

The Zero Conditional

You use the zero conditional to talk about general truths.

There are two parts to the sentence.

One part is the condition. The other part is the result.

Form:

If or When + the Simple Present, the Simple Present tense

Condition	Result
If you want to see tulips,	this is the place to come.
If you like opera,	Salzburg has great performances.
When you win a lottery,	traveling is a joy!
