

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

• Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: Welcome to Amsterdam!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask a partner:

- If you can travel anywhere in Europe, where do you want to go and why?
- If you could give away a trip to Europe to anyone, who would it be and why?

Can Do Statements

- I can say and use the hard G and C sounds.
- I can use proper intonation when stressing information.
- I can identify key information in a short audio.

Let's Explore!

Sally meets a local woman outside her hotel.

* When you are a "local" person, you are from that city.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: It's my first day in Amsterdam. I was wondering if you could tell me what I should go see first.

Local Woman: Do you like flowers and gardens?

Sally: Sure, who doesn't?

Local Woman: Then you should definitely go to the flower market, even on a cold foggy day like today. It will leave a good impression.

Sally: Maybe I could buy some gifts for the gang back in Cambridge. What else could I do?

Local Woman: You must try our Pannekoek! They are delicious.

Sally: What are those?

Local Woman: They are a type of salty pancake.

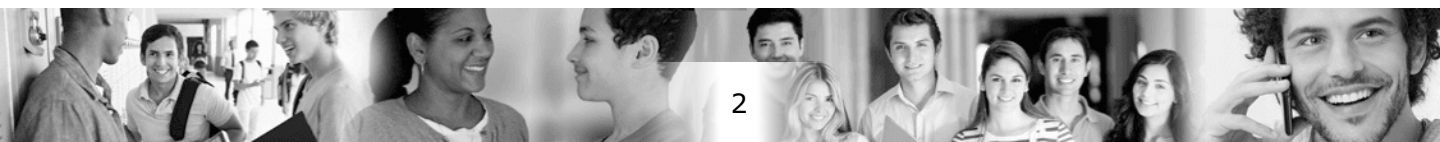

Sally: Interesting.

Local Woman: Do you believe in ghosts?

Sally: Sure, I do.

Local Woman: Amsterdam has a lot of ghosts. Why do you think this city has so many canals? Because ghosts can't cross water. Kidding aside, you might consider the ghost tour of Amsterdam.

Sally: Sounds good. You gave me a lot of ideas.

Let's Practice!

Can you make a suggestion? Can you use proper intonation?

Instructions: Read the dialogue again. Read the sentences. Fill in the blank with the missing word. Use: must, might, should. Read the sentences aloud. Emphasize the bolded words in the sentences.

1. Then you _____ definitely go to the flower market even on a day like today.
2. You _____ try our Pannekoek!
3. Kidding aside, you _____ consider the ghost tour of Amsterdam.

Let's Practice!

What is the sound?

Instructions: Read the clues on the left. Check off the correct box in the table.

	Hard G sound	Hard C sound	Soft G sound	Soft C sound center
ghosts
pancakes
cross package
canal
good

Extension Activity

Explore the city. Write about it!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Write a 50-word paragraph about a place in your city.
- Use 3 words with the hard c sound and 3 words with hard g sound.
- Read the paragraph aloud. Stress the key words and important information.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I write a paragraph about my city using words with the hard c and hard g sound.

☐☐

I read the paragraph aloud and use words with the hard c and hard g sound.

☐☐

I stress important information about a place in my city.

☐☐

Target Words

- foggy (adjective): cloudy on the ground and on buildings
e.g. It is a cold, foggy day.
- gang (noun): a group of friends who do things together
e.g. The gang is all here.
- impression (noun): an idea of what someone/something is like e.g. It's our first date. I hope I make a good impression.
- pancake (noun): a thin, flat, cake fried on both sides
e.g. I love to have pancakes and bacon for breakfast.
- ghost (noun): the soul of a dead person
e.g. Ghosts cannot cross the canals.
- kidding aside (expression): be serious for a moment
e.g. Kidding aside, there is a ghost tour of Amsterdam.

Learning Points

Modals to Express Suggestions

You use should, could, might and shall to express suggestions.

You can use might with want or like to be polite.

Examples:

- Shouldn't we take a walk along the canal?
- You could talk to Sally on video chat and ask her.
- You might consider taking up yoga.
- Shall we throw a party once I get back from Amsterdam?
- I thought you might want/like to look at this map.

